Dr. Megan J. Cowsill, DO, a board certified Ophthalmologist, has joined Burman & Zuckerbrod Ophthalmology at its medical office suite on Woodward Avenue in Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Cowsill, who completed her residency in Ophthalmology in 2007 at the Detroit Consortium of Osteopathic Ophthalmologists, has started seeing patients in our practice this July. To schedule an appointment with Dr. Cowsill, please call 248-332-4544; she is accepting new patients.

The hiring of Dr. Cowsill will bring a total of five ophthalmologists to Burman & Zuckerbrod Ophthalmology along with Dr. M. Michael Garin, OD, our optometrist.

Our mission is to provide high-quality eye care to our patients in nearby, easily accessible locations. With Dr. Cowsill joining the practice, she will bring her expertise in general ophthalmology and oculo-plastic surgery.

Dr. Cowsill received her doctorate in medicine from the Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine. She did her internship at the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. She graduated from Michigan State University in East Lansing, MI with a Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry. She is a member of the American Osteopathic Colleges of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, the Michigan Ophthalmological Society, the American Academy of Ophthalmology, the American Osteopathic Association and the Michigan Osteopathic Association. She was an Hour Magazine Top Doc for 2014 and 2015.

Dr. Cowsill will conduct eye exams and also perform surgical procedures, treating patients for a variety of ophthalmic conditions, including cataracts, glaucoma and diabetic eye disease.

We are extremely happy and fortunate to have ophthalmologist Dr. Cowsill joining our practice. We look forward to working with her and are pleased that our current and future patients will be able to benefit from her extensive experience.
